2. The objects of the Club shall be to practise and to encourage the practice of Highland and Scottish Country Dancing.
3. The Club shall be a members’ club and shall consist of ordinary members and junior members. A member shall be a junior member so long as that person shall remain a student. No person shall be admitted to membership until that person shall have paid the first annual subscription.
4. The officers of the Club shall be:
 - President
 - Vice-President
 - Secretary
 - Events Secretary
 - Membership Secretary
 - Treasurer
5. The Committee shall consist of the six officers and four other members. In addition, the President for the previous year will continue as a committee member for one more year.
6. The Officers and Members of the Committee shall be elected by the members of the Club at the Annual General Meeting (AGM). The President and the Vice-President may each serve for two years, the Vice-President assuming the office of President after two years. The Treasurer and the three Secretaries may serve in that office for a term of not more than five years. The other committee members may each serve for a term of five years.
7. The Committee shall have the power to co-opt additional members as may be necessary, either to fulfil specific tasks, or to fill casual vacancies until the next AGM.
8. On completion of their term of office, an officer or committee member shall be ineligible for re-election for a period of one year, unless no nomination is received for that position and the individual is willing to serve for a further year.
9. The annual subscription for ordinary members and junior members shall be determined at the AGM. Annual subscriptions shall be payable within seven days of the AGM. The Committee may terminate the membership of any person whose annual subscription remains unpaid two months after the AGM.

10. The Committee shall be empowered to make such regulations as it thinks fit to ensure the good government and efficient management of the Club, provided that such regulations in no way vary, infringe or set aside in whole or in part, the provisions of this Constitution.
11. The Committee shall be empowered to delegate to the Officers or to sub-committees such powers as it shall think fit. Whilst the Committee retains overall responsibility for finance, operational responsibility lies solely with the Treasurer. In exceptional circumstances (usually related to the non-availability of the Treasurer) the Committee can use its powers to make alternative arrangements. The accounts of the club shall be audited by an independent auditor appointed each year at the AGM.
12. The Committee shall be empowered to make such arrangements and to undertake on behalf of the Club such contracts, engagements or other liabilities as it shall think to be in the interests of the Club and to the furtherance of its objects. In all such matters the Committee shall be deemed to act as the agent of all members of the Club.
13. The Committee shall ensure the preparation of annual accounts of the Club made up to the year ended 31 March and their auditing.
14. The Committee shall be collectively responsible to the members of the Club for the good government and efficient management of the Club and for any action taken by it or by Officers or other members of the Club or by sub-committees on its authority or under powers duly delegated by it.
15. The Officers and sub-committees shall be responsible only to the Committee for the prompt and efficient discharge of their duties and for actions taken on the authority of the Committee or under powers duly delegated by it.
16. The members of the Club shall indemnify the Committee and any Officer or other member of the Club whether acting on the authority of the Committee or under powers duly delegated by it or not, against any loss or liability whatsoever or howsoever caused, provided that the Club shall in no circumstances indemnify the Committee or any Officer or member of the Club against any loss or liability arising from his or their wilful misconduct or from activities not reasonably in the interest of the Club or to the furtherance of its objects.

22. All other decisions taken at a General Meeting shall be by majority vote. In the event of a tie, the President will have a casting vote.

23. An Extraordinary General Meeting shall by order of the Committee or upon written notice given to the Secretary, signed by 12 members of the Club and specifying the matter or matters to be dealt with, be convened by the Committee within two months of such order or such notice.
